

Assumptions (200 words):

- Each ticket must have a fan, as it is created when it is purchased by a fan. But each ticket might not be sold. Hence, each seat might not have a fan.
- Event staff may not be involved with an event, if they are sick.
- Assuming there is an event occurring at least once in the employer's and event staff members' lifetime, it is mandatory to hire and be hired for the event.
- All possible concert series have unique names.
- If a waitlist application is manually processed, each waitlist entry must only be processed by one staff member at one time. Multiple waitlist entries can be processed by the same staff member.